SECOND SUNDAY OF Advent

2nd Sunday of Advent, Year A - 2025

“METANOIA” – Preparing the Way of the Lord

The voice we hear this Sunday is loud, urgent, and uncompromising: John the Baptist crying in the desert, “Prepare the way of the Lord! ”

God wants to come into our lives not as a visitor but as a Savior. But He asks for a heart that is open, receptive, uncluttered. Our problem is not that God is far. Our problem is that our hearts are often too crowded with worries, distractions, resentments, fears, pride, sin. Thus, we are reminded to prepare a place where Christ can enter.

Thus, John calls for repentance or in the original word - “Metanoia.” But that word scares us. We hear “repent” and think of shame, guilt, and feeling bad. But “Metanoia” is much more beautiful. It means real conversion, a change of direction or a turning of the heart and thus attain a new way of seeing. Thus, “metanoia” is not a punishment it is an invitation to open ourselves for healing and freedom.

And to help us through this path of conversion, we must stand with John the Baptist in the desert because grace often begins there. For the desert is where distractions fade, illusions die, and essentials come into focus. The desert is where Israel first learned to trust God. It is where God speaks to the heart. And while the desert can be challenging even frightening, Advent teaches us that the desert is not a dead place. It is a place where God begins new things.

If we choose to tread the path of conversion (metanoia), then Christmas will not simply be a holiday. It will be an encounter with the One who comes to save us.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.
May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole Cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.

Franciscus
