The Harvest Is Abundant!

Many of us look at the world and feel overwhelmed by the violence, brokenness, and misery people have to contend with every day. But Jesus sees not a hopeless world. He sees a field ready for harvest and one that is abundant.

But Jesus is also quick to point out that the laborers are few. And that is the reality. Not because the world is lacking in resources, but because not everyone is willing to work in God's field. Some are too busy, some are too afraid, some don't believe they are capable. Thus, He gives this instruction: "Ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers." This is a call to prayer – to ask God for vocations. The first task of those sent by the Lord is to pray for laborers – to pray for vocations.

But this is also a fitting reminder for those who have responded to the call that this sacred task of working in the Lord's field is not my accomplishment, not my harvest. It is all by the Lord. That is why even if a laborer of the Lord finds himself to be a lamb among wolves or lacking in provisions, take courage. Because in the kingdom of God, the strength of the mission does not come from the laborer's power – it comes from God.

With the prophet Isaiah, let us respond with courage and generosity:
"Here I am, Lord. Send Me."

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.
May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole Cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.
