Solemnity of Corpus Christi 2025

“Give them some food yourselves. “

Today we celebrate the great feast of the Body and Blood of Christ - the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. And the Church wants us to focus and lift our eyes and hearts and our faith to the mystery of the Holy Eucharist, where our Lord Jesus gives us his very self – His Body and Blood to be our food and our drink!

Confronted by a hungry crowd, the disciples approached Jesus with a suggestion to send them away so that they could go get food. But Jesus surprises them with his words: “Give them some food yourselves. “ This is the heart of today’s feast. Our Lord Jesus is very much aware of the hungers of the human family, and as He is ready to feed us with His flesh, He also calls us to be ready to be bread broken for others.

The Body of Christ that we receive at our altar is not just for us. It is a strength for the journey, but it is also a sacred trust and responsibility. We are called to be what we receive. Eucharist is not only a gift to be adored, but it is also a life to be lived.

But probably we are afraid that we have so little to give and not even the best quality. Well, let us not be afraid. The Lord is not asking us to do it alone. He is with us. He is asking us to offer what we have and put it into His hands so that He might bless it! He takes what little we offer and turns it into abundance. The miracle begins with us!

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.
May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole Cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.

Franciscus
